Poll Hours and Election Preparedness Presidential Preference Primary January 31, 2012

Pasco County FL - Brian E. Corley, Supervisor of Elections, announces the polls for the January 31, 2012 Presidential Preference Primary (PPP) will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. for qualified voters. By law, Florida is a closed primary state and as such, the PPP is a partisan election for registered Republicans only. There are no democratic candidates, minor party candidates or amendments on the ballot.

Some things voters should be aware of for the Presidential Preference Primary are:

1. Voters may NOT change party at the polls. Applications for party changes were due in the Supervisor of Elections' Office by bookclosing date, January 3, 2012.
2. Voters must present photo and signature ID when voting, or vote a provisional ballot.
3. Voters who have moved to Pasco County from another Florida county should report their address change to the Supervisor's office before Tuesday, January 31, 2012, or they will be statutorily required to vote a provisional ballot.
4. Voters new to Florida who have never voted in Florida must have submitted a voter registration application by bookclosing date, January 3, 2012, in order to be eligible to vote in this election.
5. Your polling location is on your voter information card or online at pascovotes.com by selecting the "precincts and districts" tab on the homepage.
6. Voters may check their registration status online at pascovotes.com.

"Reminding everyone what's required on election day ensures a smoother voting experience," said Supervisor Corley. "Our goal is to provide the best service possible and a flawless, transparent election to the citizens of Pasco County".

Florida Statutes (Section 101.031(2)) delivers instructions to voters and establishes a Voter's Bill of Rights and Voter Responsibilities. Pursuant to statute, copies of these are posted in all polling places on election day. They can be viewed beforehand online at pascovotes.com by clicking the voter education tab on the homepage and selecting the voter's guide option.
