To Accept Scholarship Applications Supervisor of Elections

Pasco County FL -- Supervisor of Elections Brian E. Corley is now accepting applications for the Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections (FSASE) Scholarship. Applications for the scholarship can be accessed on-line at www.pascovotes.com, and are due in the supervisor's office by March 19, 2012. The Association will award one scholarship statewide to a Political Science/Public or Business Administration or Journalism/Mass Communications Major.

Applicants must have finished two years of junior college or undergraduate work, be enrolled or accepted as a full-time student in a senior college or university in Florida, have been a resident of Florida for two years, and demonstrate a financial need. Two letters of recommendation, one from a college or university last attended, and one from a personal reference should accompany the application. The applicant must be registered to vote.

Additional guidelines and eligibility information can be found at www.pascovotes.com by selecting the FSASE Scholarship Application link on the homepage. Applicants will be personally interviewed by Supervisor Corley, who will then select one finalist from Pasco County for consideration by the FSASE Scholarship Committee.
